How Paint.

The first cost of a good job of paint—Devoe—is $50 (average size, of course). The first cost of a second or third or fourth rate job, $55 to $100.

The wear is likewise. The better you paint, of course, the longer it wears. And the more you pay for your job, the shorter it wears!

Devoe is one of a dozen good paints. There are hundreds of bad ones. As likely as not, Devoe is the only good one in this town.

DEVOE.

Which will be Free to the Public. The school children have proven their ability to please the people on previous occasions. There are twelve characters in this play and judging from the way they are working it promises to eclipse all others they have ever put on.

If you don't laugh you had better lose

Come out to this and get your money's worth, then come out Wednesday to the Commencement Exercises—It WILL BE FREE as the hall is rented to the Odd Fellows for that night—but every other night and Saturday afternoon skating will continue.

If you haven't tried the new skates and floor, don't—for your own sake—fail to come out on Friday night.

The floor is simply fine—the best you have ever seen in this county—and, if you haven't skated on the new skates, you don't know what you are missing. And, when you combine the new skates and new floor, you just simply can't keep away.

Come out Friday and if you are not completely satisfied your money will be refunded.

A VALENTINE.

THE violet's red, the rose is blue,
But neither is as sweet as you.
Yet please accept this prim bouquet
Which I have culled for you today—
A curious thing, by which I mean
The like before was never seen.
These violets red, these roses blue;
In this respect they're like to you.
For you are fairer, sweeter far,
Than other little maidens are.
So, sending you this rare bouquet,
I really mean it when I say:
"The violet's red, the rose is blue,
But neither is as sweet as you."

TELL that teacher friend of yours that Hondo will have a normal this summer and that a large attendance is desired.

THE West Texas News of Del Rio has entered its fifth volume. The News is a spicy and interesting sheet. May it have many happy returns of its natal day.

HONDO is an ideal place for a Summer Normal. It is healthful, supplied with an abundance of pure, wholesome water, and is equipped with an ideal school building. You will never regret it if you select the Hondo Normal as the one to attend this summer.

"ONE of the best trade getters for any town", says the Hondo Anvil Herald, "is the reputation of being a good market for farm produce". Yes, and the better the market, the better the town. Farmers trade where they sell their stuff, so a town must get into the buying business if it expects to do much selling.—San Antonio Express.

JOE Boehmer boasts that Eagle Pass is the best town between San Antonio and El Paso because its banks have the most money. We fail to see where all that money in the bank and only thirty cents in the editor's pocket would count for much! Then, too, Hondo is a hundred miles nearer the San Antonio breweries than Eagle Pass is! There now!

THERE will be a "special examination" for teachers' certificates at each county seat on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 1, 2 and 3, and a regular examination on June 5, 6 and 7. Teachers who expect to be examined during the current calendar year should call on the county superintendent at once and get a list of the prescribed books on which the examination questions in certain subjects will be based.—Texas School Magazine.

WE doff our editorial visor and make our politest bow to the Medina Valley Herald in recognition of the following compliment: "Fletcher Davis has been editor and chief of the Hondo Anvil Herald for thirteen years. In Mr. Davis' career as a newspaper man, he has gained friends amongst the most substantial and solid minded citizens of Medina County. He has been guided by his own views of matters alone and after careful study of an important issue he would handle it with discussion and would not be baffled by many opinions, and never did hesitate in fearlessly laying his mind open to the reading public no matter what the outcome. May the Anvil Herald, Hondo and Davis continue the good work for more than twice times thirteen years longer, and prosper."

HONDO Davis has been in charge of the Hondo Anvil Herald for thirteen years and is justly proud of that fact. But not nearly so proud as the large number of pleased subscribers to that excellent paper are. May the Anvil Herald and Davis live long and prosper, and eventually rid Hondo of the odoriferous hog pens.—Eagle Pass News-Guide. So mote it be!

After any Sickness

nothing so rapidly restores health and vigor as SCOTT'S EMULSION. It is the essence of natural body-nourishment, so medically perfect that nature immediately appropriates and distributes it to every organ, every tissue—feeding, nourishing and restoring them to normal activity.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is not a patent medicine, but is nature's body-nourishment with curative, upbuilding properties and without a drop of drug or alcohol. It contains superior cod liver oil, the hypophosphites of lime and soda with glycerine, and is so delicately emulsified that it enters the system without digestive effort—builds, tones and sustains.

After croup, whooping cough, measles and other child ailments it is nature's ally in restoring health.

After gripe or pneumonia it imparts strength and health, and for colds, coughs, sore, tight chests and throat troubles SCOTT'S EMULSION gives the greatest relief known.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Look to Your Plumbing.

You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is in poor condition—everybody in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other fever. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house, and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief. For sale by W. H. Windrow.

Healthy Old Age Is What Dr. Hartman Advocates

See here, young man, I heard you complaining the other day of being nervous, sleepless, brain fagged, and the like. A young man, hardly in the zenith of your life, complaining of such things! And this is very common, too. You are not the only one. Probably three out of four of the young men of to-day have just such symptoms as you describe. What does it mean?

Look at me. I am eighty-two years old. Sound as a nut. Tough as hickory. Do not know what it is to be tired. While I cannot do as much physical work as I used to when a young man, I can do a great deal. Probably twice as much as the average young man of to-day.

What has kept me so strong and well? I will tell you. I do not use tobacco. I do not use alcoholic stimulants. I do not use tea or coffee habitually. I go to bed early. I get up early. I am always doing something; something that occupies my body and mind. I love to work. I take a cold water towel bath every morning, winter and summer. It is these things that have kept me well and strong. You could be just as well and strong as I am if you would do as I do.

You may ask, do I never get sick, have I never had occasion to take medicine at all? Yes, I have got sick. Sometimes I feel a little touch of climatic trouble. Like cold, malaria, slight catarrhal symptoms, but my only medicine is Peruna. I always keep a bottle of Peruna in the house. I keep a bottle of Peruna on my desk in my office. Once in a while I take some. I do not take it habitually. Take it only when I feel a little out of sorts. One swallow will perhaps be all that will be necessary, but it is always handy by.

It is a sorry sight to see the young men of to-day begin to peter out physically when they ought to be in the glory of their manhood and the height of their vigor. Eat plain food. Live frugally. Give up all weakening habits. Live as God intended you to live. Take Peruna when you do not feel as well as usual.

If you want me to I will send you a book which will tell you a great many more things about yourself and about matters that may be of great value to you. Enclose a two-cent stamp for postage and the book will be sent in a plain wrapper and you will not be troubled with any follow-up letters or advertisements. PERUNA IS FOR SALE AT ALL DRUG STORES.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Many persons are making inquiries for the old-time Peruna. To such would say, this formula is now put out under the name of KA-TAR-NO, manufactured by KA-TAR-NO Company, Columbus, Ohio. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet.

At The Auditorium.

The Soss of Herman have just had a new maple floor put in at the Auditorium and Mr. Brewer has purchased new Winslow skates.
A number of the young folks spent a very pleasant time there Saturday night and all claimed it was as good a floor as they had ever skated on.
The new floor is laid parallel to the walls all the way around. This way the skates are always running with the grain of the wood which makes them almost silent.
This is now claimed to be the largest and best floor in this county for skating and dancing.
Mr. Brewer promises a series of good dances which will start soon.

"Yes, our new wagon's a Studebaker—the only kind we KNOW"

"The Studebaker idea has been in our family for sixty years. We have never thought of buying any other kind of a wagon."

"It's true, we're continually being offered other wagons costing a little less, with lots of promises as to what they will do. But we know in our family what a Studebaker will do. A few dollars difference in price doesn't matter much. It's the service a wagon gives that we consider most."

"Long service for a fair price means more every time than short service for a few dollars less."

"That's why we stick to Studebaker—and 'Stick to Studebaker' is a pretty good motto for a man who uses wagons."

"Studebaker wagons are built of good stuff. They're made right by people who've had years and years of experience in making them right—people who are trusted the world over."

"Studebaker wagons last, because they're made to last."

"Look out for the dealer who tells you his wagon is just as good as a Studebaker. That's my advice after a good deal of experience—and the experience of all of my people. You get a Studebaker and you've got a safe investment."

HOW TO RESIST

Chronic Coughs and Colds.

Strong, vigorous men and women hardly ever catch cold; it's only when the system is run down and vitality low that colds and coughs get a foothold.

Now isn't it reasonable that the right way to cure a cough is to build up your strength again?

Mrs. Olivia Parham, of East Durham, N. C., says: "I took Vinol for a chronic cough which had lasted two years, and the cough not only disappeared, but it built up my strength as well."

The reason Vinol is so efficacious in such cases is because it contains in a delicious concentrated form all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, with tonic, blood-building iron added.

Chronic coughs and colds yield to Vinol because it builds up the weakened, run-down system.

You can get your money back any time if Vinol does not do all we say. Sold by W. H. Windrow, Hondo, Tex.

Coughs and Consumption.

Coughs and colds, when neglected, always lead to serious trouble of the lungs. The wisest thing to do when you have a cold that troubles you is to get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. You will get relief from the first dose, and finally the cough will disappear. O. H. Brown of Muscadine, Ala., writes: "My wife was down in bed with an obstinate cough and I honestly believe had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery she would not be living today." Known for forty-three years as the best remedy for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00. Recommended by W. H. Windrow.

Opulent Bard.

"I can't understand how that poet's wife is able to dress so well. I thought there was no money in poetry." "I guess there isn't; but her husband has the job of writing all the advertising rhymes for one of the biggest breakfast food concerns in the country. Have you seen their new automobile?"

For Weakness and Loss of Appetite

A Homely Man's Romance

By CORA HATHORN SYKES

Mart Krebs was a very homely man. He had red hair, was freckled, several teeth were gone and his beard stood out from his face like bristles. Krebs was fifty-five years old and as unromantic a person as could be imagined. He had been a stage driver all his life, and now that the railroads had elbowed the stagecoach off the main lines of travel Mart was handling the reins in the Yellowstone park, driving parties of visitors there. One day some young ladies were occupying the next seat back of the driver, one pretty miss of eighteen sitting beside him. She was trying to get Mart's experiences of wild western life out of him.

"Are there any romances among these episodes of yours, Mr. Krebs?" she asked.

"I don't know what episodes is," he replied, "but if by romances you mean love there's one love story, but that's the only one so far as I know."

"Do tell it," came from all the girls at once. Mart began by sundry instructions to his horses, eased the coach on a down grade by putting his foot on the brake, hemmed several times and told his story:

"This park when I was a youngster was a part of the western wilderness, but they called it what they call it now, and once in awhile there was a party visitin' it. I'd been drivin' a coach between Denver and Georgetown, but had gravitated over yere. The Ute Indians was yere in them days, and they was friendly to the whites, but the friendship of redskins means nothin' doin' between them as a tribe and the whites. It don't take in small affairs.

"Wasn't one day I was slouchin' around lookin' for a good place where there was water to stay awhile when I heered the crack of a rifle. I was in a boiler, and I couldn't see nothin' and I didn't know which direction it was comin' from, but as there was a road just beyond the rise on my right I kind of thort there was somepin goin on in that direction. I clim' up part o' the way and crawled up the rest till I stuck this ugly mug o' mine—I was almost as ugly then as I am now—over the ridge.

"What I saw was this: A party of visitors was ridin' in a three-seated wagon—three on a seat—and three Utes was makin' road agents of themselves, calculatin' to do a little civilized plunderin'. They had stopped the wagon by the shot, had heard, and the party in the wagon was handin' out their valuables. There wasn't one of 'em armed, and they hadn't no business drivin' there without protection. They had been told there wasn't no danger, and mostly there wasn't.

"I was only one man with one rifle, though I had plenty of ammunition. I didn't feel like interferin' so long as the redskins acted Christian-like and didn't do nothin' more'n rob. But when they'd got all the cash there was in the party and found there wasn't much of it after all one of 'em saw a mighty pretty young gal, and I heard him ask her to be his squaw. I know'd just enough of their lingo to understand what he meant, but none of them in the wagon did. The red devil took hold o' the gal and pulled her out o' the wagon. She was skeered pretty nigh to death. When they got her in the road they was takin' her off into the forest when I calculated it was time to interfere. I was layin' on my stomach with my rifle before me, havin' a perfect aim with a rest. I sent a ball into the skull of the red man that was pluin' for matrimony and dropped him.

"His two pals in about one second had got their eyes on a bit o' smoke sailin' off from where I was and know'd where the shot come from, but they didn't know who had fired it or how many there was of me. I didn't give 'em time to make plans. I let fly another lump o' lead, though by this time the two live Indians was makin' for trees, and I only winged one o' 'em. The other took the wounded man and helped him away. I sent another ball after 'em so's to discourage 'em from comin' back. I waited awhile, reckonin' they might, but hearin' nothin' o' 'em I went down and joined the party.

"The raskil I killed had most of the plunder on him, and that was saved. But the principal thing saved was the gal. When she got it through her head what I'd done she jist wobbled up to me and throwed her arms about my neck and collapsed."

"How interesting!" exclaimed the girl beside the narrator. "I thought we'd get to the love part after awhile," said another. "Do go on!" cried a third. "Let's have your proposal!" chirped a little girl not quite fourteen years old.

"They wasn't no proposal," Krebs continued. "Do you reckon a young feller with red hair and freckles would have the gal to propose to a young lady like that? I jist handed her over to her mother, and her father, who'd got his money back from the Indian I'd shot, handed me a twenty dollar gold piece. I told him I didn't have no use for it, livin' wild like I was, and he put it back into his pocket. They all wanted to do sompin for me, but I wouldn't let 'em. But I got into the wagon with 'em and sor 'em to a house."

"But the romance!" exclaimed several of the girls.

"Oh, that's been with me ever since. The gal hadn't nothin' to do with it."

"And you never married her?"

"No, nor any one else."

After Close Of School.

What shall I do with son and daughter after close of school? This question confronts many parents at this season of the year. We all concede that it is better to keep young people busy. Many times they are not qualified to be really useful in store and office, and they are usually not old and strong enough to do a man's work on the farm. It is then largely a matter of choosing between sending them to a summer school or letting them loiter about town. Surely this is the time to consider a business education of Bookkeeping, Banking, Shorthand and Typewriting.

The cost is small—around $50 for a single course of Bookkeeping and Banking or Shorthand and Typewriting, and around $85 for the two courses combined.

The San Antonio Business College, 307 Alamo Plaza, San Antonio, Texas, makes a specialty of these branches as well as Commercial Law, Business, Arithmetic, spelling, Penmanship, Rapid Calculation, etc.

Last year one Banker sent his own son to this college through summer vacation, and paid the way of three other ambitious students. The President of the college, Mr. H. C. Mitchell, will send catalogue and full particulars concerning the school upon request.

Rheumatism as a result of kidney trouble, stiff and aching joints, backache, lumbago and sore kidneys, all yield quickly to the healing and curative qualities of Foley Kidney Pills. At Least Knew His Value.

A native, named Appu, of Kotahana, Ceylon, recently attacked his father and mother with a mallet while they were asleep, and nearly killed them. The excuse he subsequently gave was that he was disgusted with his "miserable parents for having such a low-down son."

No Conclusive Evidence of Change.

Found a Cure For Rheumatism.

The Spirit of Bob Taylor.

"On July the thirty-first, eighteen hundred and fifty, Heaven loaned to earth the spirit of Bob Taylor, and charged him with a joyous mission—to interpret to men the mystic messages of Nature."

"He heard and understood the tongueless tattle of brooks and rivers, the thunder-spoken language of the storm. He caught the sylvan stories of the forest that whispers with the borrowed breath of vagrant winds. He learned the jagged dialects of thorns and thistles, and the sweet vernacular of flowers that woo the air with the wordless speech of fragrance."

"He led us to the trysting place of silent blooming things, where timid violets rest in the arms of roves that croon with songs of birds, and the wild honeysuckle, pink-gowned Princess of the woods, blows breath of honey in the faces of the enamored hills."

"With the magic of his words, he opened our ears to melodies that sing in all the sounds that din the world. From a single blast of the hunter's horn he evolved the merry music of the chase; he saddened a landscape with the mournful notes of a dove, and wrapped the vague beauty of the evening twilight hour in the mellow harmonies of distant bells."

"With eyes that conned the mute mysteries of trooping worlds, he read the far away signals that twinkle from the fields of space and the sun-kindled fires that burn on the cloud-hills of dawn."

"He played on keys that sound beyond the ken of flesh and blood and thrill the senses of the soul."

Handy Storage Closet Built
Under Stairs.

A convenient way for utilizing space
beneath stairs is shown in the sketch of storage shelves. This space is often wasted unless some such arrangement is made. As shown, a tight cupboard is built beneath the stairs. Inside this closet are placed on a level with each second step and running from the steps to the back wall of the closet and then across the back, which, if desired, may be arranged as a door to be kept closed until cleaning time. On these closets are sliding shelves long enough to reach from the rear of the step to the back wall. They are provided with upright fronts. One is shown drawn out at A. The hoe B is used for drawing the vegetables forward and should be long enough when held at arm's length to reach the back of the longest shelf.

Roast Goose.

Prepare the goose the day before it is to be cooked. Steam the bird two hours before roasting and stuff with this mixture: Two cupsful of soft breadcrumbs, one cupful chopped apple, one small onion minced, salt, pepper and a little sage to taste. Put it into a hot frying pan with two heaping tablespoonsful of butter and stir until apple and onion are cooked. Do not fill the goose too full. Cover the bird with thin slices of bacon stick them on with toothpicks, baste frequently, cook until tender and serve with spiced apples.

Cook three and one-half pounds of sugar with a quart of vinegar, a handful of whole cinnamon and cloves
until it is thick, then put in some firm apples and let them simmer until they are tender, but do not let them break. Remove from fire, put on a dish with stems up, then add to stir-up a cupful of sugar and boil ten minutes. Pour this over apples. When the goose is ready to serve surround with spiced apples and garnish with parsley.

Plum Pudding and Hard Sauce.

One cupful chopped suet, one cupful raisins, one cupful currants, one-half cupful chopped citron, one cupful blanched and chopped almonds, one cupful molasses, one cupful sugar four eggs, two cupsful fine bread crumbs, one teaspoonful each cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg, allspice, one-half teaspoonful salt, one pint flour
with one teaspoonful baking powder sifted with it, one level teaspoonful soda dissolved in a little warm water add the last thing, flour the fruit with part of the flour, put in pudding
molds and steam four hours.

Hard Sauce.—To one-half cupful butter gradually add one cupful powdered sugar, flavor with vanilla or nutmeg.

Sardines a la Lozere.

One can of good French sardines and two good sized onions coarsely chopped. Place in the center of a large quite deep dish. Pour over the onions the oil from the sardines and a little more olive oil, according to taste; one-third cupful of vinegar, salt and pepper. Then take from four to six hard boiled eggs and cut in halves. Mix thoroughly three of the yolks with the onion mixture. Arrange the remainder of the eggs around the edge of the dish with a sardine on each side.

English Walnut Pie.

Beat the yolks of two eggs and half a cupful of sugar to a cream, add one tablespoonful of lemon juice, the juice and half the grated rind of an orange and one-half cupful of chopped English walnuts. Line a deep pie plate with pastry and when half baked add the filling with a meringue made of the whites of two eggs, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and two tablespoonfuls of chopped nuts. Return to the oven and bake until a rich brown.

Saratoga Jam.

Take five pounds of cranberries and five pounds of granulated sugar, one pound seedless raisins, chopped fine,
four oranges, juice and grated rind.
Put all ingredients into a preserving kettle, cook them for about forty minutes, or until like marmalade. Put into jelly glasses. Cover with paraffin when cold. This can be made all winter and is delicious with poultry and meats.

Dressing For Wild Duck.

Put in pan one tablespoonful of butter, one cupful of seedless raisins, one-half cupful of currants, one tablespoonful jelly, two tablespoonfuls of one pint of apples cut fine, cover let steam for a few minutes,
stove and when cold add one cupful breadcrumbs, one egg and

SAFER THAN CALOMEL.

Dodson's Liver Tonic at Night Will Straighten You Out by Morning.
Calomel May Knock You Out of a Day's Work.

If you are a calomel user, next time you are tempted to buy it ask your druggist if he can absolutely guarantee the drug not to harm you. He won't do it because he CAN'T do it.

But here is a perfect substitute for calomel which the druggist does guarantee—the famous Dodson's Liver Tonic. W. H. Windrow will refund your money without question if you are not thoroughly satisfied.

Go to W. H. Windrow whom you are acquainted with—and find out about the great number of people who are taking this remarkable remedy and feeling better, keener, healthier, and better able to enjoy life than they ever were when taking calomel.

Why? Because calomel is a poison
—one that may stay in the system,
and while seeming to benefit you temporarily, may do harm in the end. If you haven't felt these ill-effects so far,
it is because you are fortunate enough to have a strong constitution.

Don't take the risk any longer. Get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic (50c.)
and note how easily and naturally it corrects all bilious conditions, how it clears away that sick headache and coated tongue, how it sets you right without ache or gripe. The most wonderful thing in the world for constipation.

All this without the slightest interference with your regular habits.
